

Beaver Road Primary School

Religious festivals, celebrations and holidays

In Manchester the Local Authority guidance for Headteachers and Governors is that only one day for each religious festival (no more than three days in any one academic year) should be counted as authorised absence.

Additional days off for shopping or for extended celebrations should be treated as unauthorised absence.

David How

Headteacher
2 October 2009